

PhytoBurst® Chews Competitive Advantage

As compared to similar competitor products, Mannatech's PhytoBurst Nutritional Chews deliver greater overall nutrition with natural, food-sourced nutrients.

In recent years there's been a surge in the popularity of dietary supplements that claim to include "super food" or "super fruit" ingredients. It's easy to see why these products have become popular. Many health professionals and nutritionists promote the advantages associated with obtaining nutrients from natural food sources.

Mannatech has always believed that the most healthful ingredients are found in nature. We've long been committed to incorporating the most natural, food-sourced ingredients with the latest innovations in science to produce the most natural and effective products possible. This commitment has produced a clear advantage for Mannatech when it comes to effective, natural technologies.
